1. "Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
2. "Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
3. "Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
4. "On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
5. "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates). Meridian does not track 150% completion rate and therefore noted "0" on its annual report.
6. "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
7. "Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
8. "Graduates Unavailable for Employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau -approved postsecondary institution.
9. "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
10. "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
11. "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
12. "First Available Exam Date" is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
13. "Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
14. "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
15. "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
16. "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has a right to cancel this Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund. The student may cancel this Enrollment Agreement and receive a refund within 45 days by providing a written notice to: Director of Graduate Programs, Meridian University, 47 Sixth Street, Petaluma, California, 94952. A student is considered Withdrawn when they submit written notice of their withdrawal as described above or upon Administrative Withdrawal due to a student's conduct including, but not limited to, a lack of attendance (see the Student Handbook for a full description of Administrative Withdrawal).

The student has a right to a full refund of all charges for instruction less the amount of $250 for application or deposit if the student cancels this Enrollment Agreement prior to attendance at the first class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. In addition, the student may withdraw from the program after instruction has started (through 60% of the coursework) and receive a prorated refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges. For example, if the student completes only 30 hours of a 90-hour course and has paid $300 tuition, the student would receive a tuition refund of $200. However, if the student was enrolled in more than 60% of the coursework, the student is obligated for all fees and tuition for the academic year. Refunds will be mailed to the student within 45 days of cancellation or withdrawal, and will first be applied towards any outstanding debts with Meridian University.

For students participating in the Blended Learning format, the school will provide the student access to its Online Learning Management System (where lessons and materials are found) within the first seven days after the Enrollment Agreement has been signed by both the student and a school representative.

Students participating in the Blended Learning format have the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and receive a full refund before accessing the Online Learning Management system (where lessons and materials are found). Cancellation is effective on the date that written notice of cancellation is sent. If the student has accessed the Online Learning Management System before effective cancellation notice was received, the school can send the refund within 45 days.

The school will provide access to its Online Learning Management System to the student participating in the Blended Learning format, if the student has fully paid for the entire educational program and only if the student requests, in writing, access to all lessons after initially accessing the Online Learning Management System. If the school provides access to lessons and materials as the student requests, the school will provide the educational services related to that coursework; but if the student withdraws before completion, the school will not be obligated to pay any refund after online access to lessons and material has been provided.

Continuation students who complete all graduation requirements or withdraw from Meridian University will receive a refund of the Continuation Fee, prorated on a quarterly basis. Students who complete their program or withdraw after June 1, 2017, will not receive a Continuation Fee refund. If a student withdraws during the clinical case study or dissertation period, they would receive a prorated refund of the Clinical Case Study Fee or Dissertation Fee, respectively, if they withdraw at 60% or less of their one-year clinical case study or two-year dissertation period. No refunds will be given to Continuation Students who complete their clinical case study or dissertation prior to the end of their doctoral clock. Refund amounts will be applied first toward any outstanding loans or other financial obligations with Meridian University.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for their educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. Loan, tuition, or other balances owed to Meridian University by the student will be paid according to the terms set forth in this Enrollment Agreement and any Promissory Note(s).

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the student will have the opportunity to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. The refund shall be sent to the lender, third party, or, if appropriate, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan. Any amount of the refund in excess of the unpaid balance of the loan shall be first used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the amount of the benefits received, and any remaining amount shall be paid to the student.

For programs beyond the current "payment period" (September 1, 2016 – August 31, 2017) if the student withdraws prior to the next payment period, all charges collected for the next period will be refunded.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

Coursework students may withdraw from the school at any time after the cancellation period and receive a prorated refund if the student has completed 60% or less of coursework in the current payment period in their program through the last day of attendance or withdrawal, whichever is later.

For coursework students, the refund will be less an application or deposit fee not to exceed $250.00, and less any deduction for equipment not returned in good condition, within 45 days of withdrawal. If the student has completed more than 60% of the period of attendance for which the student was charged, the tuition is considered earned and the student will receive no refund.

For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, coursework and continuation students shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a program of instruction when any of the following occurs:

- The student notifies the school, in writing, of the student's withdrawal.
- The school terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the school; absences in excess of maximum set forth by the school; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the school.
- The student fails to return from a Leave of Absence.

The student understands that if a separate party is financing his/her education, the student, and the student alone, is directly responsible for all payments and monies owed to the school listed on this Enrollment Agreement.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- a. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- b. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

This school cannot participate in State or Federal loan programs.

Cancellation is effective on the date that written notice of cancellation is sent. If the student has accessed the Online Learning Management System before effective cancellation notice was received, the school can send the refund within 45 days.

The school will provide access to its Online Learning Management System to the student participating in the Blended Learning format, if the student has fully paid for the entire educational program and only if the student requests, in writing, access to all lessons after initially accessing the Online Learning Management System. If the school provides access to lessons and materials as the student requests, the school will provide the educational services related to that coursework; but if the student withdraws before completion, the school will not be obligated to pay any refund after online access to lessons and material has been provided.

Continuation students who complete all graduation requirements or withdraw from Meridian University will receive a refund of the Continuation Fee, prorated on a quarterly basis. Students who complete their program or withdraw after June 1, 2017, will not receive a Continuation Fee refund. If a student withdraws during the clinical case study or dissertation period, they would receive a prorated refund of the Clinical Case Study Fee or Dissertation Fee, respectively, if they withdraw at 60% or less of their one-year clinical case study or two-year dissertation period. No refunds will be given to Continuation Students who complete their clinical case study or dissertation prior to the end of their doctoral clock. Refund amounts will be applied first toward any outstanding loans or other financial obligations with Meridian University.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for their educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. Loan, tuition, or other balances owed to Meridian University by the student will be paid according to the terms set forth in this Enrollment Agreement and any Promissory Note(s).

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the student will have the opportunity to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. The refund shall be sent to the lender, third party, or, if appropriate, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan. Any amount of the refund in excess of the unpaid balance of the loan shall be first used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the amount of the benefits received, and any remaining amount shall be paid to the student.

For programs beyond the current "payment period" (September 1, 2016 – August 31, 2017) if the student withdraws prior to the next payment period, all charges collected for the next period will be refunded. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

Coursework students may withdraw from the school at any time after the cancellation period and receive a prorated refund if the student has completed 60% or less of coursework in the current payment period in their program through the last day of attendance or withdrawal, whichever is later.

For coursework students, the refund will be less an application or deposit fee not to exceed $250.00, and less any deduction for equipment not returned in good condition, within 45 days of withdrawal. If the student has completed more than 60% of the period of attendance for which the student was charged, the tuition is considered earned and the student will receive no refund.

For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, coursework and continuation students shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a program of instruction when any of the following occurs:

- The student notifies the school, in writing, of the student's withdrawal.
- The school terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the school; absences in excess of maximum set forth by the school; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the school.
- The student fails to return from a Leave of Absence.

The student understands that if a separate party is financing his/her education, the student, and the student alone, is directly responsible for all payments and monies owed to the school listed on this Enrollment Agreement.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- a. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- b. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

This school cannot participate in State or Federal loan programs.

1. "Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
2. "Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
3. "Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
4. "On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
5. "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates). Meridian does not track 150% completion rate and therefore noted "0" on its annual report.
6. "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
7. "Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
8. "Graduates Unavailable for Employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau -approved postsecondary institution.
9. "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
10. "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
11. "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
12. "First Available Exam Date" is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
13. "Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
14. "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
15. "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
16. "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has a right to cancel this Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund. The student may cancel this Enrollment Agreement and receive a refund within 45 days by providing a written notice to: Director of Graduate Programs, Meridian University, 47 Sixth Street, Petaluma, California, 94952. A student is considered Withdrawn when they submit written notice of their withdrawal as described above or upon Administrative Withdrawal due to a student's conduct including, but not limited to, a lack of attendance (see the Student Handbook for a full description of Administrative Withdrawal).

The student has a right to a full refund of all charges for instruction less the amount of $250 for application or deposit if the student cancels this Enrollment Agreement prior to attendance at the first class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. In addition, the student may withdraw from the program after instruction has started (through 60% of the coursework) and receive a prorated refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges. For example, if the student completes only 30 hours of a 90-hour course and has paid $300 tuition, the student would receive a tuition refund of $200. However, if the student was enrolled in more than 60% of the coursework, the student is obligated for all fees and tuition for the academic year. Refunds will be mailed to the student within 45 days of cancellation or withdrawal, and will first be applied towards any outstanding debts with Meridian University.

For students participating in the Blended Learning format, the school will provide the student access to its Online Learning Management System (where lessons and materials are found) within the first seven days after the Enrollment Agreement has been signed by both the student and a school representative.

Students participating in the Blended Learning format have the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and receive a full refund before accessing the Online Learning Management system (where lessons and materials are found). Cancellation is effective on the date that written notice of cancellation is sent. If the student has accessed the Online Learning Management System before effective cancellation notice was received, the school can send the refund within 45 days.

The school will provide access to its Online Learning Management System to the student participating in the Blended Learning format, if the student has fully paid for the entire educational program and only if the student requests, in writing, access to all lessons after initially accessing the Online Learning Management System. If the school provides access to lessons and materials as the student requests, the school will provide the educational services related to that coursework; but if the student withdraws before completion, the school will not be obligated to pay any refund after online access to lessons and material has been provided.

Continuation students who complete all graduation requirements or withdraw from Meridian University will receive a refund of the Continuation Fee, prorated on a quarterly basis. Students who complete their program or withdraw after June 1, 2017, will not receive a Continuation Fee refund. If a student withdraws during the clinical case study or dissertation period, they would receive a prorated refund of the Clinical Case Study Fee or Dissertation Fee, respectively, if they withdraw at 60% or less of their one-year clinical case study or two-year dissertation period. No refunds will be given to Continuation Students who complete their clinical case study or dissertation prior to the end of their doctoral clock. Refund amounts will be applied first toward any outstanding loans or other financial obligations with Meridian University.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for their educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. Loan, tuition, or other balances owed to Meridian University by the student will be paid according to the terms set forth in this Enrollment Agreement and any Promissory Note(s).

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the student will have the opportunity to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. The refund shall be sent to the lender, third party, or, if appropriate, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan. Any amount of the refund in excess of the unpaid balance of the loan shall be first used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the amount of the benefits received, and any remaining amount shall be paid to the student.

For programs beyond the current "payment period" (September 1, 2016 – August 31, 2017) if the student withdraws prior to the next payment period, all charges collected for the next period will be refunded. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

Coursework students may withdraw from the school at any time after the cancellation period and receive a prorated refund if the student has completed 60% or less of coursework in the current payment period in their program through the last day of attendance or withdrawal, whichever is later.

For coursework students, the refund will be less an application or deposit fee not to exceed $250.00, and less any deduction for equipment not returned in good condition, within 45 days of withdrawal. If the student has completed more than 60% of the period of attendance for which the student was charged, the tuition is considered earned and the student will receive no refund.

For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, coursework and continuation students shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a program of instruction when any of the following occurs:

- The student notifies the school, in writing, of the student's withdrawal.
- The school terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the school; absences in excess of maximum set forth by the school; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the school.
- The student fails to return from a Leave of Absence.

The student understands that if a separate party is financing his/her education, the student, and the student alone, is directly responsible for all payments and monies owed to the school listed on this Enrollment Agreement.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- a. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- b. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

This school cannot participate in State or Federal loan programs.

1. "Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
2. "Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
3. "Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
4. "On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
5. "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates). Meridian does not track 150% completion rate and therefore noted "0" on its annual report.
6. "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
7. "Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
8. "Graduates Unavailable for Employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau -approved postsecondary institution.
9. "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
10. "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
11. "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
12. "First Available Exam Date" is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
13. "Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
14. "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
15. "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
16. "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has a right to cancel this Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund. The student may cancel this Enrollment Agreement and receive a refund within 45 days by providing a written notice to: Director of Graduate Programs, Meridian University, 47 Sixth Street, Petaluma, California, 94952. A student is considered Withdrawn when they submit written notice of their withdrawal as described above or upon Administrative Withdrawal due to a student's conduct including, but not limited to, a lack of attendance (see the Student Handbook for a full description of Administrative Withdrawal).

The student has a right to a full refund of all charges for instruction less the amount of $250 for application or deposit if the student cancels this Enrollment Agreement prior to attendance at the first class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. In addition, the student may withdraw from the program after instruction has started (through 60% of the coursework) and receive a prorated refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges. For example, if the student completes only 30 hours of a 90-hour course and has paid $300 tuition, the student would receive a tuition refund of $200. However, if the student was enrolled in more than 60% of the coursework, the student is obligated for all fees and tuition for the academic year. Refunds will be mailed to the student within 45 days of cancellation or withdrawal, and will first be applied towards any outstanding debts with Meridian University.

For students participating in the Blended Learning format, the school will provide the student access to its Online Learning Management System (where lessons and materials are found) within the first seven days after the Enrollment Agreement has been signed by both the student and a school representative.

Students participating in the Blended Learning format have the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and receive a full refund before accessing the Online Learning Management system (where lessons and materials are found). Cancellation is effective on the date that written notice of cancellation is sent. If the student has accessed the Online Learning Management System before effective cancellation notice was received, the school can send the refund within 45 days.

The school will provide access to its Online Learning Management System to the student participating in the Blended Learning format, if the student has fully paid for the entire educational program and only if the student requests, in writing, access to all lessons after initially accessing the Online Learning Management System. If the school provides access to lessons and materials as the student requests, the school will provide the educational services related to that coursework; but if the student withdraws before completion, the school will not be obligated to pay any refund after online access to lessons and material has been provided.

Continuation students who complete all graduation requirements or withdraw from Meridian University will receive a refund of the Continuation Fee, prorated on a quarterly basis. Students who complete their program or withdraw after June 1, 2017, will not receive a Continuation Fee refund. If a student withdraws during the clinical case study or dissertation period, they would receive a prorated refund of the Clinical Case Study Fee or Dissertation Fee, respectively, if they withdraw at 60% or less of their one-year clinical case study or two-year dissertation period. No refunds will be given to Continuation Students who complete their clinical case study or dissertation prior to the end of their doctoral clock. Refund amounts will be applied first toward any outstanding loans or other financial obligations with Meridian University.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for their educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. Loan, tuition, or other balances owed to Meridian University by the student will be paid according to the terms set forth in this Enrollment Agreement and any Promissory Note(s).

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the student will have the opportunity to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. The refund shall be sent to the lender, third party, or, if appropriate, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan. Any amount of the refund in excess of the unpaid balance of the loan shall be first used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the amount of the benefits received, and any remaining amount shall be paid to the student.

For programs beyond the current "payment period" (September 1, 2016 – August 31, 2017) if the student withdraws prior to the next payment period, all charges collected for the next period will be refunded.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

Coursework students may withdraw from the school at any time after the cancellation period and receive a prorated refund if the student has completed 60% or less of coursework in the current payment period in their program through the last day of attendance or withdrawal, whichever is later.

For coursework students, the refund will be less an application or deposit fee not to exceed $250.00, and less any deduction for equipment not returned in good condition, within 45 days of withdrawal. If the student has completed more than 60% of the period of attendance for which the student was charged, the tuition is considered earned and the student will receive no refund.

For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, coursework and continuation students shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a program of instruction when any of the following occurs:

- The student notifies the school, in writing, of the student's withdrawal.
- The school terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the school; absences in excess of maximum set forth by the school; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the school.
- The student fails to return from a Leave of Absence.

The student understands that if a separate party is financing his/her education, the student, and the student alone, is directly responsible for all payments and monies owed to the school listed on this Enrollment Agreement.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- a. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- b. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

This school cannot participate in State or Federal loan programs.
