INSTITUTE OF IMAGINAL STUDIES

Graduate School & Research Center

The five experiential programs listed below are designed to be a one-day introduction to the principles and practices that guide Transformative Learning at the Institute of Imaginal Studies. They will be led by Melissa Schwartz, Ph.D., Aftab Omer, Ph.D., and other Institute faculty.

The Soul's Passion: Initiation & the Transformative Journey

The soul actively seeks experiences, including those that are difficult, to initiate us into deeper engagement with the ultimate mysteries of life. This workshop explores initiatory experiences which pave the transformative journey.

Dates offered: Aug. 20, Sept. 10, Oct. 1, and Nov. 5, 2005

Women, Power, and Intimacy

This workshop explores the resistance women have to embodying power and offers resources that can empower women within intimate relationships.

Date: August 27, 2005

Turning Towards the Darkness: Grief and the Initiation of Men

In turning towards the darkness men can open a wellspring for renewal and revitalization. In this way, grief can be a doorway to the creative endeavors that constitute a man's destiny.

Date: August 27, 2005

The Transformative Power of Ritual

This workshop explores the creative and transformative uses of ritual in our everyday lives.

Date: October 8, 2005

The Art of Conflict: Leadership & the Creative Transformation of Culture

The Art of Conflict harnesses the energies of conflict, diversity, and chaos to create cultural change. This workshop explores the power of imagination in practicing the art of conflict.

Date: October 29, 2005

Information Meetings For Prospective Students

Friday evening Group Information Meetings (followed by The Soul's Passion workshop on Saturday) give prospective students an opportunity to learn about the Institute's graduate programs in psychology.

Dates: Fridays, Aug. 19, Sept. 9, Sept. 30, and Nov. 4, 2005

Time: 7:30 - 10:00 p.m. Info. Meeting Fee: No Charge
